

President

This is the leading role within King's Think Tank, from whose strategy and leadership King's Think Tank is led. The President is the figurehead and leader of the society, and is responsible for setting the annual strategy, goals and objectives, managing the Core Committee and overseeing all corresponding activity.

This role is a fantastic opportunity to develop leadership, make an impact, and network with some of the leading people in the United Kingdom. Becoming President of King's Think Tank follows in the footsteps of outstanding individuals who have expanded King's Think Tank to be the leading student-led think tank it is today.

Job responsibilities:

- Development of King's Think Tank Annual Strategy
- Leadership and general management of King's Think Tank committee, providing cohesiveness and overall strategic focus for events
- Contact for King's Think Tank patron(s), strategic partners and leading public figures

The President will work closely with:

- The Vice-President and Director(s) of King's Think Tank, representing King's Think Tank within King's, with strategic partners, high-profile guests and potential sponsors
- The Core Committee – Treasurer, General Editor, Head of Liaisons, Head of Communications and Social Secretary – working to ensure a cohesive committee with equal responsibilities.

Desirable Skills/Attributes:

- Strategic thinker, passionate about maintaining King's Think Tank as Europe's largest student-led think tank, with ideas to further expand King's Think Tank
- Strong leadership skills, patience and fairness in managing King's Think Tank committee, ability to manage competing priorities, and attention to detail, with ability to lead projects through to completion.
- Strong professional presence when representing and advocating King's Think Tank with patron(s) and major partners (King's College London and leading public figures).
- Strong understanding of policy and ability to provide leadership in policy development within King's Think Tank.
